

Overseas Wars Funding

DEPARTMENT/ AGENCY	AMOUNT	DETAILS OF SPENDING
		NOTE: Government agencies were asked in February for spending on memorials and commemorations for NZ Wars and wars fought on foreign soil. While individual entries here reflect those answers, and while an effort was made to ensure the totals for overseas vs domestic battles are comparable, different agencies provided figures for different time periods, so caution is advised in making direct dollar comparisons. An effort was made to avoid double-ups. This list is not exhaustive.
Dept. Internal Affairs	$142,000.00	2014 ANZAC Day commemoration. 5 August 2014. Anniversary of the outbreak of WWI and formation of 1st NZ Expeditionary Force. 29 August 2014. 100th Anniversary of the occupation of German Samoa, WWI.11 November 2014. 96th armistice day. 25 April 2014-15. Wreath laying, Ataturk. 2013 ANZAC Day commemoration (this is an estimate based on averaging out previous 5 years as 2013 was not supplied).
Lottery Grants Board	$17,291,000.00	A one-off allocation made July 2012 to fund community events, activities, capital projects associated with the commemoration of 100th anniversary of WWI.
Min. of Foreign Affairs	$886,000.00	MFAT spending on representation at war commemorations including ANZAC Day for 2013-14
Ministry for Culture and Heritage	$262,722.00	2013-14 operational expenses for First World War Centenary. (Being 30% of $796,129; remainder met by MFAT, NZDF and DIA)
Ministry for Culture and Heritage	$200,000.00	2013-14 payments to the Commonwealth War Graves Commission for the maintenance of memorials at Gallipoli (Turkey), Longueval, Le Quesnoy (France), Messines and s'Gravenstafel (Belgium). NB: Based on averages for previous 5 years, as only 8 years to 2012 were provided.
Ministry for Culture and Heritage	$308,409.00	2012-2013 (but MCH says this cost would be typical of any financial year). Spending on 17 national monuments ("large structures like the Massey, Ataturk and Savage Memorials and the NZ Memorial in London"); on 4,191 Commonwealth war graves of WWI and WWII within NZ and 5 Pacific Countries; on 36 Korean war graves in the UN cemetery, Busan, Korea.

Overseas Wars Funding

Creative NZ	$1,500,000.00	"Creative New Zealand has established a special fund to commission new, large-scale collaborations between New Zealand and international partners that will contribute to New Zealand's aims for the First World War centenary programme." http://ww100.govt.nz/october-2013-director's-update#.U0MjUK2SyjI
NZ Defence Force and Veterans Affairs	$4,465,000.00	Funding 2013-14 to support overseas commemorations of WWI, WWII, Korean War: $3.95 million; Funding 2013-14 to support national domestic commemorations for WWI, WWII, Korean War: $315,000; Funding for WWI Centenary Programme for 2013-14 $200,000. (Full funding 2014-15 not yet made.)
TOTAL	$25,055,131.00

NZ Wars Funding

DEPT/AGENCY	AMOUNT	DETAILS
Te Puni Kokiri	$120,000.00	Waikato Raupatu Trustee Company to assist Ngā Pae o Maumahara coordinate a schedule of commemoration events. May 2013-Sept 2014; Waikato Tainui Te Kauhanganui Incorporated to provide Ngā Pae o Maumahara funding to support events programme (Waikato and Tauranga campaigns) Feb 2014-May 2014.
Ministry for Culture and Heritage	$94,795.00	2012-2015 spending on commemorative activities related to the New Zealand Wars anniversaries. (This overstates the comparable spend since it is for 3 years.)
Ministry for Culture and Heritage	$25,868.00	2012-2013. 351 historic graves and monuments relating to NZ Wars in 81 sites.
NZ Defence Force, Others		NZDF did not provide a dollar figure, however both Māori organisers and NZDF pointed out that NZDF is providing support for all the NZ War commemorations, from November 2013 to June 2014, Te Ranga; There is also spending on memorials and reserves by the Department of Conservation and Historic Places, who did not respond in time for this article. Creative New Zealand is likely to have funded some individual projects that relate to NZ Wars.
TOTAL	$240,663.00	